NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

CONSUMPTION

A MARVELOUS STORY
TOLD IN TWO LETTERS.

FROM THE SON: "32 Cedar St., New York, Oct. 25, 1884.
"Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the enclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it grew to a good deal to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case.

Yours truly, W. M. Phillips.

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humors caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced using your Sarsaparilla in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect. I believe I am able to do good day's work, although 72 years of age. Many inquire what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Glover, Vt., Oct.
31, 1882. Yours gratefully, Hiram Phillips.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula, and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworms, Itchings, Sores, Rashes, Tumors, and all eruptions of the skin. It cleans the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.

THE REVIEW.

JACK & NIXE, Proprietors.

PRESIDENT-ELECT CLEVELAND will be 48 years old March 18—fourteen days after his inauguration.

Mr. F. Jones supposes that the Kansas Republicans who burned him in effigy must have been very drunk.

The republican papers of the country are doing themselves proud by publishing the following epitaph of St. John, by the Albany Evening Journal, the republican organ of the capital of New York.

His Jacec.

HERE LIES
J. P. ST. JOHN.

He desecrated his wife and her unborn babe in early manhood. Studied broken-hearted. In middle life he betrayed his country and handed its destinies to the rebellion and anarchy. He finally died, loaded more heavily than was Benedict Arnold with the contempt of the American people.

The Republican has a great deal to say about the mid-rail of the republican press since the election.
The following from the Chicago Tribune shows the intolerant spirit of the radical organs:

"If Cleveland has carried New York Cookling alone has thrown enough votes to him to Omaha county to make up more than his majority, as is Cookling's return to the republican party for all the honest republicans upon him, and this is the way he proves his stalwart republicanism. His malicious treachery will cause many people again to fir-ve that he inspired Caneau to fire the fatal ball into the body of Garfield."

We lately heard a minister say but never in his experience had the situation and personal abuse of the present campaign been equaled.
This is probably true. Never was a man so malign and abused by ministers as well as laymen, as Gov.
Cleveland. The lowest words of a language were sought to heap opprobrium upon him, and none were more active in this than a certain class of so-called ministers. It originated with Ball, and his foul falsehoods were as widely as well as publicly scattered broadcast over the land, his character certified to by men of his profession. And on the eve of the election, to make the church more prominent, a coteries of minister called in, on Mr. Blaine, and the famous alliteration, "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion" was put forth. Gov.
Cleveland, with his so-called servan-ce, was the only one to stand by him, and the result is different from what they wanted. We are sought to believe that the finger of Providence is seen through all things.

Probably ministers may learn from the results of the election, that their business is not to throw dirt in a political campaign. It will take li-political preachers, no matter or what side many long weeks to wash their churches into their accustomed spiritual life.

THAT GAIN OF 233.

The following from the Chicago News explains that reported gain of 233 votes in New York City, which was sent abroad to many of the papers of the west:

Through all the past twenty four hours the silly people who drink in comfort and misinformation in equal parts from the Tribune and Inter-Ocean were crowding into the Daily News office to ask if that reported gain of 233 votes for Blaine in the 17th election district of the 23rd assen-sly district could be relied upon.
And we were forced to say to them we do to our readers now, it was no gain for Blaine at all. It was simply the creation of an error in a table which has been confessedly full of inaccuracies from the beginning and does not in the very slightest degree affect the tables which have been correct from the beginning.

The whole vote of this unfortunate precinct was officially counted thus: Blaine, 188; Tilden, 168. And it has been so counted by the New York Times and World and Herald for more than a week.

The simple fact is this: Eight assembly districts out of the twenty four in New York county had been counted last evening, and the result was something like a net gain of 30 votes for Cleveland. If the other sixteen districts follow as closely upon the figures which have been accepted as correct by every honest New York paper for a week, Cleveland's plurality will not vary 100 votes from the 43,226 claimed for him, and he will have, as we have said for days, between 1,200 and 1,300 in the state.

BLUE MOUND has a C. P. preacher in the person of Rev. Bankston. He has for many years been a religious teacher in Macon county. But if not lied upon, he has lately forgotten "Christ and Him crucified," and thought only of politics. He is reported to have said last Sunday, that it was a my-try to him that enough people could be found in this country to turn over the government into the hands of the rebels as shown by the late election. We hope for the sake of the cause of religion, and this minister's reputation, that he has been incorrectly reported. No

New York, November 13, 3:30 p. m.
—All the counties in the state having been canvassed, and Cleveland's plurality having been unaffected, all attention is now given to the slow count going on here in the city. The board of aldermen had about concluded the tenth assembly district at 3 o'clock this afternoon. No changes of any importance were discovered, and none are expected. It is not probable that the official vote of the city will vary ten from the vote as already published. All this talk about fraud has ceased to have any significance. Democrats should not be disturbed by rumors sent out by the defeated party. Gov. Cleveland's plurality is absolutely impregnable,

and all the lying on earth will not shake it. This city has settled down to the conclusion that Cleveland is elected, and the people are going about their business as usual. According to official returns up to this hour, and reliable reports from that part of New York City not yet canvassed officially, Cleveland's plurality in the state will be 1,200. As before stated it will finally appear to be about 1,300.

as—Ten Lives Lost.

New York, November 13, 3:30 p. m.
count going on here in the city. The
cluded the tenth assembly district at
of any importance were discovered,
cance. Democrats should not be

absolutely impregnable,
to the conclusion that Cleveland is
hour, and reliable reports from that
part of New York City not yet canvassed officially, Cleveland's plurality in the state will be 1,200. As before
stated it will finally appear to be about 1,300.

Excursion to Tennessee, Mississippi, Arkansas and Texas.

The Illinois Central railroad will make an excursion to the above named points. Leaving Decatur at 5 p. m., at points south of, and including, Jairo, Illinois. To accommodate passengers for New Orleans, Jersings, and Florida points, we will run through coaches and sleeping cars from Sioux City. Application for sleeping car berths, excursion tickets, and emigration book, entitled "To Northern Sea-ports for Southern homes," should be made to the underlisted at Macon, after Iowa.

The funeral of Austin Hartwell took place yesterday afternoon from St. John's Episcopal church and was very largely attended. The remains were laid to rest in Greenwood cemetery whither they were followed by many sorrowing friends. A body of men employed on the Illinois Midland attended the funeral and the young gentlemen friends of the deceased were present in a body.

Coming to town yesterday a well-known farmer and his wife were discussing where the best place to hitch the team would be. The wife suggested that around by the Republican office would be the best place, "for you know," she said, "it has been so quiet there for the past few days that there is no danger of the team being frightened into running away."

The boys arrested on Thursday evening by Officer Helmick for stealing cider at Aiken's, and fancy pigeons from Adam Glens, are still in custody. The officers desire to capture the rest of the gang before any of them are brought up for trial. Another one of the boys who is charged with being connected with the scraw was arrested by Officer Helmick yesterday morning. His name is Charles Potter. A state case will be made against them, and if guilty some of them stand a first-class chance of going to the reform school.

THE DARK ANGEL OF DEATH ENTERED THE happy home of Captain David L. Allen on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, and claimed that venerable gentleman for its victim. For several weeks he has been confined to his room with a severe attack of senile diarrhea, but his illness was borne with commendable fortitude until the summons came for his presence in the bright and better world. His aged and faithful wife with her two daughters and a few friends were present at his bedside to comfort and cheer him in his last hours on earth. Captain Allen was a Virginian by birth and was imbued with all the true and manly principles and characteristic hospitality of the people of that state. He was born in 1806 in Loudon county, but while still young removed to Kentucky and from there to Tennessee. In 1828 he came to Decatur township with a drove of sheep, and, being pleased with the country and its advantages, he took up his permanent abode here. In 1830 he led to the hymeneal altar J. H. Read, sister of the late Dr. T. H. Read. Captain Allen experienced the ups and downs of life, but always maintained that happy spirit which endeared him to so many of the residents of Macon county. At one time he owned 80 acres of land in the center of this city, and was reported to be worth at least $70,000. Adverse circumstances, however, placed him in a less flourishing condition in his declining years. He was an honorable and upright man in all of his business transactions, and his generosity toward public institutions was a noticeable trait of his noble character. He gave to the Baptist church the lot on Water street where the Reeser building now stands, and to the school fund he gave the lot where now stands the beautiful Haworth block, and was equally as generous in giving to the city land for our park. Through all of his long life he was a devoted and conscientious member of the Baptist church. He and Dr. Read built the old Maht mill and dam, which no longer remain, except in memory.

For fifteen years Captain Allen and family have resided at their beautiful homestead near the Sangamon, where he has conducted a dairy and raised strawberries and other fruits. Frequent to his sickness he always visited the city daily and was always warmly welcomed. He was a genial and companionable man, and although very old, he was an entertaining conversationalist. He was the oldest settler of Decatur township and among the oldest of Macon county. He was a brother of Samuel Allen and Mrs. Dr. Read, of this city, and of Robert and Lemuel Allen, of Pekin.

The funeral of the deceased will take place to-morrow morning at half past ten from the Baptist church. Rev. Dr. Vosburgh officiating. Friends and acquaintances of the family are invited to attend.

Too many republicans have accused themselves to regard the government as a sacred priesthood committed to them, as the tribe of Levi. They have seemed to reason that it was they alone who saved the Union, and to whom it belongs to have and to hold, and to govern, them, their heirs and assigns forever. They forget that as many states which did not secede now have democratic governments, as there are of those which did secede. They forget that in the presidential election of 1880, the republicans cast less than 1,000,000 out of 4,442,000 democratic votes cast, and that in the present contest they cast probably less than one-fifth of the democratic vote of the country. They have had sedulously fostered in them a feeling of bitterness toward the democratic party as a whole, for every rascal who has given rise in the south, in the past twenty years—yes, for all time. Now these men need to cool off, else they will say things which might do very well before election, but which after election will look very silly to them by and by and be regretted.

The Hanlons. The Hanlons will appear here on Tuesday evening, in their famous play of "Le Voyage en Suisse" or "A Trip through Switzerland." The Philadelphia Times says: "The Hanlons are one of the few combinations who have been given a second week at the Arch St. Theatre this season, and the wisdom of the management in prolonging their engagement will be proved by the attendance during the coming week. Since we are so have no Christmas pantomime it was not a bad idea to anticipate the season by bringing them here before the holidays, and giving us a taste of as good a pantomime entertainment as can be seen on this side of the water. The management of the stage has contributed not a little to the enjoyment of the audience, for tricks as complicated as are used in 'Le Voyage en Suisse,' must be well done to be effective." Popular prices.

"Zozo, the Magic Queen." The above attractive piece will be presented at the opera house next Wednesday and Thursday evenings. The New York Herald says the following of it: "Zozo is something grand. The scenery is beautiful, the transformations exhibit great mechanical skill, the costumes are rich and novel, and produce a harmony in color which is rarely seen. By the combination of scenery, transformations, costumes and people, fairy-land seems to have been brought down to the comprehension of mortals." Popular prices, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

Y. M. C. A. Mr. Harry Lunn will lead the Glee meeting to-night, Time, 7:15. Subject, "Choose Life." Drut xxx. 15 20; Col. III 1-4. All cordially invited. C. me.

In speaking of the Specialty Company to appear here Saturday evening, an exchange says: "Sam Devere in his banjo selections; Morris and Shannon, formerly Murphy and Shannon, who have recently doubled up; Pete Shaw, the famous female impersonator; those excellent artists, Chas. Diamond and Max Hilton. Milanese minstrels and only lady eccentric dancer; Frank Lewis, with his humorous and witty deceptions; songs, and Murphy and Mack, their latest comedy entitled Ketch On, supported by Murphy and Mack's Comedy Four Company, of which the above goodly array of artists are members, are all sufficient to prove themselves good trawling cards and to amuse." Popular prices 35, 50 and 75 cents.

Charley Wilkison has a democratic dog—at least he thinks so, from the company with which he clings to life. Charley was out hunting the other day, and had the dog with him. His dogship got on the Stevens creek bridge, and while waiting for his master to come up he played setter in a literal sense—sitting on a railroad tie. A freight train came along, but the dog moved not until struck by the cow-catcher and tossed into the stream below. He went down head-first into the water, and for a time was lost to sight, though perhaps the memory of his master's tear; but, like the oft vanquished democracy, he rose again, and swam ashore. He is ready for another hunt, or another collision with a freight train, being none the worse for his mishap.

We understand that Messrs. Sam Wheeler and Joe Foster have filed proposals with the city clerk for the lease of the centre of the old square, and that there is considerable rivalry between them as to who shall have it. They say it is their desire to preserve its traditions and the remembrances and recollections of its past. To this end they propose innovations, and want to perpetuate a portion of the old square at least. Mr. Wheeler thinks the central portion, after the remainder is paved, would make a good hog-pen, thus perpetuating the barn yard flavor that has characterized it for the past quarter of a century. Mr. Foster is of the opinion that he could use it for a corn field or truck patch, thus reviving and continuing old recollections in a manner more in accordance with the spirit and progress of the day. The ambition of these gentlemen to commemorate the folly of certain city dads, and preserve the memory of a municipal nuisance is the subject of a good deal of sport among the boys.

The exceptional success of the Christmas Number of Harper's Magazine last year has led the editor and publishers to attempt this year to dis appoint the public agreeably by giving them a still finer Number. Announcement is made that the coming December issue will contain no less than six separately printed plates, besides several other full-page illustrations, the frontispiece being a reproduction, in the highest art of the wood-engraver, of the charming picture of "The Boy Jesus in the Temple," by Professor Hofmann of Dresden, one of the chief contributions of modern painting to religious art. The engraving is the work of W. B. Closson, from whose graver comes also in the same issue a reproduction of the "Flora" of Titian. The literary and artistic contents otherwise furnish an extraordinary and delightful variety of sketch, story, poetry, art, and music; while in the Easy Chair Mr. Curtis writes of "John Bull and Brother Jonathan at the Christmas Fireside," and in the Drawer Mr. Warner has a prefatory word as to "The Universal Christmas Feast."

The democrats of Cerro Gordo celebrated the victory of the 4th inst. on Thursday evening in fine style. There was a good turn out, with music, bon-fire, and a general illumination of residences. But they were not allowed to interrupt and a general out-cropping of partisan meanness. Savers fought, as the ring-leader being one C. P. Yates, a school teacher, surrounded their bon-fire and attempted to extinguish it, singing republican campaign songs, and behaving in a rude, boisterous, and altogether disagreeable manner. They are also charged with going to private houses and extinguishing the lights, which shone resplendent in honor of the victory of Cleveland and Hendricks over Blaine and Logan. It became necessary for the democrats to "read the riot act" to Yates and his party, and it was done in a very pointed and forcible manner. In order to escape unpleasant consequences the ragabonds were willing to cease their reprehensible conduct. It is due to the better element of the republicans of Cerro Gordo, which embraces many very worthy citizens, to say that they strongly denounced the conduct of Yates and his gang, and regret that the rejoicing of the democrats was interfered with in such a disgraceful manner.

Miss Phoebe W. Conzina Will open the Decatur Lecture Course on Friday evening, November 21st. Subject: "Building—It divides National and National." All who desire course tickets should secure them between this and next Tuesday evening, as the reserved seats will be selected for the entire course on next Wednesday morning, November 19th, at nine o'clock, at the court room. 12d1w COMMITTEE.
